

Waiting in Line

A social story about waiting for my turn

Draw or paste a photo of me here

This story belongs to: _____

Draw or paste a photo here

Sometimes, I need to wait in a line with other people.

THE BEGINNING

Draw or paste a photo here

This might be at school, at the store, or for a fun ride.

I sometimes wait in line at: _____

THE BEGINNING

Draw or paste a photo here

Standing in line means I stand behind the person in front of me and leave a little space.

WHAT TO DO

Draw or paste a photo here

While I wait, I keep my hands and feet to myself.

WHAT TO DO

Draw or paste a photo here

It is okay if the line moves slowly.
Everyone is waiting for their turn.

WHAT TO DO

Draw or paste a photo here

If I feel bored or restless, I can take a deep breath or count quietly in my head.

I can also: _____

THE ENDING

Draw or paste a photo here

Waiting helps keep everyone calm and safe.

THE ENDING

Draw or paste a photo here

Soon, it will be my turn!

FOR GROWN-UPS

How to use this story

- Read the story together a few days before, and again just before the event.
- Add real photos of your child, the place and the people in the picture boxes.
- Fill in the blanks together, so the story feels like their own.
- Read it when your child is calm, not in the middle of a hard moment.
- Practise the steps together with a little role play.

This story is a general support tool, not a substitute for individualised guidance from a qualified professional.

behavioursupport4all.com